NEGRO SERIOUSLY HURT.

Falls or Jumps From Train and is Bruised on the Head.

A negro by the name of Charley Dearman, who owns a small farm near Cook's Point, was quite seriously hurt Sunday afternoon close to the station at that place, when he either fell or jumped off the Giddings train which was en route to Bryan. Dearman's statement is that he was on the platform of the colored coach and that just before they reached the station the air was applied with full force by the engineer and that he was thrown violently to the ground. The conductor of this train says the negro was returning from Caldwell and that he had his horse tied to a tree about 200 yards from the stopping point and when the train was even with the horse he made an attempt to alight from the moving train to avoid walking back to where his horse was hitched.

Regardless, however, of how the accident happened, the negro fell head first into a pile of rocks and was badly bruised about the head, the car wheel ran over the heel of his left foot and cut the heel off his boot. He was placed on a stretcher and brought to Bryan and given medical attention, and was carried back to his station on the return trip of the train.

Good Work

should not be expected of your boy if his eyes are not perfect. He may need glasses. Our scientifically accurate examinations will tell whether or not they will benefit him. Arrange for an examination at once.

Is This Your Boy?

You cannot expect him to be interested in his school work if he cannot see clearly. Glasses may be just what he needs. Unless you are positive your boy's eyesight is all right, you should have us examine it at once.
